Assabet Valley Chambersingers

The Assabet Valley Chambersingers is a small ensemble selected from the Assabet Valley Mastersingers. We perform music that spans the centuries, often without instrumental accompaniment. Our repertoire includes both secular and sacred songs, from madrigals and motets to show tunes and vocal jazz.

Sample Program:

How Can I Keep from Singing?
O Magnum Mysterium
Hey Ho, the Wind and the Rain
Ain'-a That Good News
Wanting Memories
Yesterday
New York State of Mind
Sentimental Journey
Java Jive

Established in 1983 by director Robert Eaton as an outreach program, the Chambersingers have performed for corporate events, local Senior Centers, churches, First Night Worcester, Tower Hill Botanic Garden, Worcester Art Museum, and numerous other civic and art events throughout Central Massachusetts.

AVM is funded in part by grants from various local Cultural Councils, which are supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council.
